The Leopard and the Zebra

Once on a hot and long day, a zebra walked under a tree. All of a sudden, he heard a terrible noise from the branches of the tree above him. He looked up and saw a leopard! Feeling scared, the zebra didn't know what to do. He seemed to be frozen in place.

But before he could move, the leopard said, "Can you please help me down? I am stuck in the tree and afraid to get down."

"Do you promise you won't eat me if I help you?" asked the zebra.

"Yes, I promise you." said the leopard.

"You gently jump onto my back. Then I will kneel, and you can walk off my back." said the zebra.

"That's a great idea!" said the leopard. So, the zebra stood under the branch where the leopard was. The leopard gently jumped onto the zebra's back and walked off to the ground.

The leopard said, "Thank you so much! I promise that I will repay you one day."

The next evening the zebra was busy eating grass. Just then, the leopard saw the lion preparing to attack the zebra.

Remembering the zebra's kindness, the leopard quickly ran to chase the lion away. The lion saw the leopard coming and quickly ran away in the opposite direction. The zebra was joyful that he was saved from the fierce lion. From that day on, the zebra and the leopard were glad to be best friends.
